

Speaker: 1 Uruguay SPANISH

Ensure that the best interests of the child are a primary consideration in all immigration decisions that affect them, including family reunification procedures, in order to facilitate the reunification of children with their families in a humane and expeditious manner (Uruguay #1);

Continue efforts to prevent and eradicate violence against women and children, including by increasing the resources available to the care network for victims of sexual or gender-based violence (Uruguay #2);

End the detention of conscientious objectors to military service and ensure that civilian alternatives to military service are non-punitive and non-discriminatory and remain under civilian control, as recommended during the Third UPR Cycle (Uruguay #3);

Speaker: 2 Uzbekistan ENGLISH

Take measures aimed at strengthening the capacity of national human rights mechanisms especially in protecting victims of domestic and gender-based violence; (Uzbekistan #1);

Continue further efforts to ensure rights of migrants (Uzbekistan #2);

Speaker: 3 Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) SPANISH

Guarantee victims of domestic violence and violence against women, access to sufficient, multiprofessional services, adapted to individual needs, accessible, and distributed geographically (Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) #1);

Cooperate fully for the reform of the Sami Parliament Act as recommended by the Human Rights Committee, and strengthen the application of the principle of free, prior and informed consent in all legislation on Sami rights (Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) #2);

Guarantee the application of more effective measures to combat racism, with adequate resources in all existing institutions and policies; Ensure that the security forces receive mandatory training in human rights, especially in the fight against discrimination and hate speech; that judicial authorities conduct prompt and impartial investigations and trials of hate crimes committed by police and security forces, and ensure a credible protection program for victims (Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) #3);

Speaker: 4 Viet Nam ENGLISH

Ensure equal access to inclusive education for all children, including children with a migrant background (Viet Nam #1);

Take all necessary steps to review the Non-Discrimination Act and other relevant anti-discrimination laws to improve the effectiveness of the legal and institutional framework to combat discrimination (Viet Nam #2);

Take effective measures to prevent both online and offline hate speech, firmly and publicly condemn such speech and intensify efforts aimed at addressing online hate speech (Viet Nam #3);

Speaker: 5 Zambia ENGLISH

Review the reservations to the Convention relating to the Status of Stateless Persons with a view to lifting them (Zambia #1);

Encourage the reporting of hate crimes and ensure that hate crimes were thoroughly investigated and perpetrators prosecuted and victims provided with effective remedies (Zambia #2);

Prohibit the detention of children in migration, by developing alternatives to detention for children and their family members (Zambia #3);

Speaker: 6 Algeria ENGLISH

Continue its good efforts to fight against discrimination, racism and hate speech (Algeria #1);

Continue its efforts to prevent violence against women (Algeria #2);

Consider ways forward for the ratification of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (ICRMW) (Algeria #3);

Speaker: 7 Argentina SPANISH

Adopt the necessary measures to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Argentina #1);

Take concrete steps to ensure that undocumented migrants have effective access to affordable and appropriate health care services (Argentina #2);

Make progress on a gender identity law that recognizes the free development of people, including children and adolescents, and that guarantees their dignified treatment (Argentina #3);

Take the necessary measures to ensure the reporting of cases of violence against women, the trial and conviction of its perpetrators, increasing the number of shelters and assistance centers in case of rape, especially in rural areas, and eliminating court fees for unsuccessful restraining order applications (Argentina #4);

Speaker: 8 Armenia ENGLISH

Take further measures that will center on issues of inclusive education for children from vulnerable groups or at the risk of marginalization, such as Roma children (Armenia #1);

Consider accession to the International Convention Against the Recruitment, Use, Financing and Training of Mercenaries (Armenia #2);

Speaker: 9 Australia ENGLISH

Ensure that the right to self-determination is protected for the Sami, including possible amendments to the Act of the Sami Parliament (Australia #1);

Harmonize their Action Plan for Combatting Violence against Women and their Action Plan for implementation of the Istanbul Convention (Australia #2);

Strengthen the protection of human rights by ensuring cohesion and closer cooperation between relevant agencies and bodies (Australia #3);

Reform legislation to remove the requirement of infertility or sterilization as a condition for the legal recognition of gender reassignment (Australia #4);

Speaker: 10 Bangladesh ENGLISH

Consider ratifying International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Bangladesh #1);

Continue its efforts to combat racism, hate speech and promote tolerance throughout the society (Bangladesh #2);

Speaker: 11 Belarus RUSSIAN

Abandon the practice of using unilateral coercive measures that are contrary to international law and the UN Charter and have an adverse impact on the enjoyment of human rights (Belarus #1);

Improve the system of assistance to young people, migrants, people with disabilities and other categories of citizens who are faced with unemployment in finding jobs, as well as take measures to provide additional social support to vulnerable groups and increase the availability of health care services (Belarus #2);

Take measures aimed at reducing hate speech and hate crimes, strengthen opposition to discrimination and violence that are carried out on racial, religious, ethnic and other grounds, and provide effective legal protection for victims of such crimes (Belarus #3);

Take measures to improve legislation in order to increase the effectiveness of protecting women and children from violence (Belarus #4);

Speaker: 12 Brazil ENGLISH

Ratify the ILO Convention 169 on indigenous people`s rights and redouble efforts to ensure the realization of all the human rights of the indigenous Sami people, particularly to a healthy environment and to receive education, social care and health services in their own language (Brazil #1);

Ensure the effective enforcement of the Istanbul Convention and the implementation of the Action Plan for 2022-2025 to eradicate all types of violence against women and support victims of such crimes (Brazil #2);

Speaker: 13 Bulgaria ENGLISH

Consider the nomination of national candidates for elections to the UN human rights treaty bodies through an appropriate selection process (Bulgaria #1);

Ensure that training programmes for law enforcement officials at all levels include mandatory training on human rights, including on anti-discrimination, and combatting hate speech and hate crime (Bulgaria #2);

Continue to expand the opportunities for young people with disabilities to receive professional training and find employment within the framework of the ongoing reforms in vocational education (Bulgaria #3);

Speaker: 14 Cambodia ENGLISH

Encourage to place human rights at the core of any response to fight pandemic by fair distribution of vaccines, medicines, tools and remedies to all, without discrimination (Cambodia #1);

Continue taking efforts and measures to ensure a clearer and more efficient social security system, as required by the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Cambodia #2);

Consider adopting legislation obliging regions and municipalities to establish effective preventive measures to reduce and eliminate violence against women (Cambodia #3);

Speaker: 15 Canada ENGLISH

Introduce legislation to allow legal gender affirmation for persons under 18 (Canada #1);

Expand access to safe houses and resources for victims of domestic and gender-based violence, including for the Indigenous Sami people (Canada #2);

Proceed with the amendment of the Sami Parliament Act to strengthen the Indigenous Sami people's right to self-determination (Canada #3);

Speaker: 16 Chile SPANISH

Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Chile #1);

Step up efforts to ensure the quality of life of the Sami People and the Roma People. In particular, solve issues related to the return of land, employability, salaries, stigmatization, and others (Chile #2);

Implement public policies to eradicate all forms of violence against women (Chile #3);

Speaker: 17 China CHINESE

Take effective measures to combat racial discrimination, xenophobia and hate crimes online and offline (China #1);

Promote gender equality and effectively combat violence against women (China #2);

Strengthen protection of people's right to life and health, especially to protect the lives and health of the elderly, the disabled and women (China #3);

Protect the Sami culture and ensure that the Sami people have access to social services in Sami-language (China #4);

Stop the detention of immigrant children and protect their rights (China #5);

Speaker: 18 Colombia SPANISH

Consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Colombia #1);

Continue the implementation of measures against the salary gap between women and men and the segregation of professions for reasons of gender; which is in particular a challenge for all and actions adopted and useful experience will be of particular interest (Colombia #2);

Speaker: 19 Congo FRENCH

Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Congo #1);

Pay particular attention to the children of undocumented migrants and unaccompanied minors (Congo #2);

Speaker: 20 Costa Rica SPANISH

Take measures to raise awareness among the public on the right to conscientious objection to military service, and extend the possibility to alternative service (Costa Rica #1);

Encourage coordination among the various national structures in charge of assisting women and girls escaping violence (Costa Rica #2);

Step up measures to eradicate ethnic profiling by police forces and avoid discriminatory treatment (Costa Rica #3);

Adopt measures to ensure undocumented migrants have effective access to health care services, which are adequate and affordable (Costa Rica #4);

Speaker: 21 Côte d'Ivoire FRENCH

Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Côte d'Ivoire #1);

Continue efforts in the fight against racial discrimination and hate speech (Côte d'Ivoire #2);

Speaker: 22 Croatia ENGLISH

Increase the number of shelters and rape crisis centers in the country, especially in the remote rural areas (Croatia #1);

Continue addressing the shortage of affordable and quality residential care for older persons (Croatia #2);

Take measures to ensure that alternatives to military service are not punitive or discriminatory in terms of their nature or duration (Croatia #3);

Speaker: 23 Cuba SPANISH

Promote actively the right to participation of persons with disabilities in society, including in the labour market, and guarantee effective legal protection against discrimination of persons with disabilities (Cuba #1);

Continue working to eradicate domestic violence and discrimination against women and girls, guarantee effective resources for reparation and ensure support in legal proceedings (Cuba #2);

Speaker: 24 Cyprus ENGLISH

Continue determined actions to end gender-based violence and violence against women and girls, including domestic violence (Cyprus #1);

Continue systematically assessing the human rights impacts of legislative proposals (Cyprus #2);

Safeguard the diversity of cultural expressions, promote intercultural and intracultural dialogue and support traditional practices and creative productions by all persons in vulnerable situations, including persons with disabilities (Cyprus #3);

Ensure all stakeholders are consulted in climate-related legislative processes (Cyprus #4);

Speaker: 25 Denmark ENGLISH

Ratify the ILO Convention 169 on Indigenous and Tribal Peoples, thereby committing to uphold the full measures of human rights and fundamental freedoms (Denmark #1);

Amend the Sami Parliament Act in order to ensure the appropriate political rights for the Sami people (Denmark #2);

Speaker: 26 Egypt ARABIC

Strengthen policies to support the family as the basic and natural unit of society (Egypt #1);

Sign and ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and members of their families (Egypt #2);

Provide the necessary protection for asylum seekers, ensuring their access to legal aid, facilitating procedures for family reunification of immigrants, and providing them with social security (Egypt #3);

Speaker: 27 Estonia ENGLISH

Take further measures to address violence against women, by both encouraging the report of and improving the identification of the cases of violence against women and domestic violence (Estonia #1);

Ensure that all law enforcement officials, prosecutors, judges and lawyers receive systematic mandatory training on fundamental and human rights, including appropriate training on how to effectively deal with cases of violence against women (Estonia #2);

Provide high-quality social and mental health services for children and young people and reinforce training in trauma and mental health of professionals working with children and young people (Estonia #3);

Speaker: 28 Eswatini ENGLISH

Consider setting up a special protection mechanism for human rights defenders and their families (Eswatini #1);

Continue strengthening laws that combat racism, hate crimes by ensuring effective and prompt investigations and prosecutions of hate crimes (Eswatini #2);

Continue strengthening laws that will realize the full implementation of the rights of persons living with disabilities (Eswatini #3);

Speaker: 29 France FRENCH

Continue the effective implementation of their national plan 2022-2025 to implement the Istanbul Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence, further facilitating access by women and girls to justice and the reporting of violence against them (France #1);

Ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance, signed on 6 February 2007 (France #2);

Speaker: 30 Gabon FRENCH

Step up efforts to combat discrimination, hate speech and incitement to violence based on race and ethnic group (Gabon #1);

Promote actively participation of persons with disabilities in the labor market (Gabon #2);

Provide adequate resources to combat exploitation and trafficking of human beings (Gabon #3);

Speaker: 31 Gambia ENGLISH

Ensure in law and in practice that workers with disabilities enjoy the right to just and favourable conditions of work on equal basis with others (Gambia #1);

Speaker: 32 Georgia ENGLISH

Continue implementing measures against discrimination through expanding focus area (Georgia #1);

Continue measures to combat hate speech and hate crimes (Georgia #2);

Speaker: 33 Germany ENGLISH

Advance the Free Prior and Informed Consent principles in all laws, and political as well as official decisions regarding the rights of the Sami people (Germany #1);

Ratify the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169) of the International Labour Organization (Germany #2);

Increase resources for efforts against violence against women, including legal accountability, as well as offering trauma-responsive care (Germany #3);

Revise antidiscrimination laws and equal opportunity legislation to provide better and intersectional victim protection (Germany #4);

Improve conditions for wage equity (Germany #5);

Speaker: 34 Greece ENGLISH

Ensure that effective efforts to combat racism are adequately funded and systematically implemented into existing structures, institutions and policies (Greece #1);

Take further action to ensure the allocation of resources towards combating violence against women, as per its obligations under international human rights institutions (Greece #2);

Strongly consider repealing legislation that permits the sterilisation of women with mental disabilities (Greece #3);

Take appropriate action towards the provision of human rights training to teachers, as a means of diminishing discrimination towards students from migrant backgrounds (Greece #4);

Speaker: 35 Iceland ENGLISH

Ensure adequate resources to respond to gender-based violence in line with the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence (Istanbul Convention) (Iceland #1);

Insert a provision in the Penal Code criminalising forced marriage (Iceland #2);

Introduce legislation to allow legal gender affirmation for persons under 18 (Iceland #3);

Respect intersex children's right to self-determination and ban unnecessary surgeries (Iceland #4);

Develop a comprehensive action plan for the protection of fundamental and human rights of LGBTIQ+ persons and ensure sufficient resources for its implementation (Iceland #5);

Enable automatic co-parent recognition and recognition of trans parenthood (Iceland #6);

Speaker: 36 India ENGLISH

Continue efforts to strengthen measures to combat domestic and gender related violence (India #1);

Continue to ensure equal access to inclusive education for all children (India #2);

Take further steps to promote equal opportunities for the Roma community in education and employment (India #3);

Continue efforts to provide equal employment opportunity to all (India #4);

Speaker: 37 Indonesia ENGLISH

Enhance efforts in combating racism, xenophobia, and hate crimes, especially those targeting migrants and asylum seekers (Indonesia #1);

Adopt legislation obligating regions and municipalities to establish effective preventive measures to combat violence against women (Indonesia #2);

Consider the ratification of the International Convention on the Protection of All Migrants Workers and Members of their Families, as a key instrument in guaranteeing a minimum degree of protection for all migrant workers (Indonesia #3);

Speaker: 38 Iran (Islamic Republic of) ENGLISH

Take effective measures to end the compliance with illegal unilateral coercive measures that are contrary to international law and international human rights (Iran (Islamic Republic of) #1);

Prepare a national plan to combat violence and discrimination against women and provide access and financial aid to support services, and strengthen cooperation between different government agencies (Iran (Islamic Republic of) #2);

Provide victims of violence access to effective remedies and means of protection and assistance and continue its efforts to provide law enforcement officials, prosecutors, judges and lawyers with appropriate training (Iran (Islamic Republic of) #3);

Ensure that children were not detained for immigration-related purposes and explore alternatives to detention that were appropriate for their age and specific circumstances (Iran (Islamic Republic of) #4);

Ensure the law enforcement, security and judicial authorities have the necessary knowledge and skills to address hate crimes against asylum seekers, refugees and immigrants especially Muslims (Iran (Islamic Republic of) #5);

Speaker: 39 Iraq ARABIC

Step up efforts to ensure repatriation of all Finnish citizens and their children from conflict zones throughout the world (Iraq #1);

Limit the placing of children in homes and foster families and make a greater effort to keep them with their families (Iraq #2);

Continue efforts to ensure detailed investigations of hate crimes and bring the perpetrators to justice, sentence them and provide remedies for all victims of these crimes (Iraq #3);

Speaker: 40 Ireland ENGLISH

Continue to address sexual and gender based violence, including by adopting specific legislation criminalising forced marriage (Ireland #1);

Review the Act on the Sami Parliament with a view to progressing the rights of indigenous peoples, specifically facilitating the right of the Sami people to self-determination (Ireland #2);

Speaker: 41 Israel ENGLISH

Take further measures to combat violence against women as well as support victims and survivors of such violence (Israel #1);

Respect intersex children's right to self-determination by introducing effective legal and other measures to prohibit unnecessary surgeries (Israel #2);

Ensure freedom of worship for all religious communities, including ritual practices (Israel #3);

Speaker: 42 Italy ENGLISH

Continue to strengthen efforts to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Italy #1);

Continue efforts to prevent and combat domestic violence (Italy #2);

Speaker: 43 Kazakhstan ENGLISH

Continue its good efforts to address violence against women (Kazakhstan #1);

Enhance its good efforts to increase women's participation in the public and private sectors and their representation at all levels, especially for women with disabilities or ethnic minority backgrounds (Kazakhstan #2);

Decriminalize defamation and place it within a civil code in accordance with international standards (Kazakhstan #3);

Speaker: 44 Lebanon ENGLISH

Pursue efforts undertaken in combatting intolerance, hate speech and hate crimes against vulnerable and minorities (Lebanon #1);

Pursue the efforts to protect the right of minorities, including the adequate access to goods and services (Lebanon #2);

Speaker: 45 Libya ARABIC

Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Libya #1);

Adopt a national plan to combat extremism, intolerance and hatred against vulnerable and minority groups (Libya #2);

Speaker: 46 Liechtenstein ENGLISH

Continue its efforts to combat, both online and offline, discrimination, hate speech and incitement to discrimination on the grounds of, inter alia, race, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation and gender identity (Liechtenstein #1);

Strengthen efforts to encourage the reporting of cases of violence against women, and ensure the safety of women who come forward as well as that cases of violence against women are thoroughly investigated and that perpetrators are prosecuted and, if convicted, punished with appropriate sanctions (Liechtenstein #2);

Provide victims of sexual and gender-based violence, in particular those living in remote rural areas, with access to effective remedies and means of protection and assistance, including to accommodation and shelters in all parts of the country (Liechtenstein #3);

Speaker: 47 Lithuania ENGLISH

Continue active efforts to combat all kinds of violence, especially domestic violence, by expanding engagement and cooperation between different authorities and other relevant stakeholders addressing this issue (Lithuania #1);

Speaker: 48 Luxembourg FRENCH

Ensure that its anti-terrorism legislation, in particular the definitions it contains and the powers provided for therein as well as their limits, is compatible with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and with the principles of legality, legal certainty, predictability and proportionality (Luxembourg #1);

Ensure that alternative solutions to military service are not punitive or discriminatory and remain civilian in nature, outside military command and fully accessible to all (Luxembourg #2);

Decriminalize attacks on the sanctity of religion and protect freedom of thought, conscience and religion as well as freedom of expression, in accordance with Articles 18 and 19 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (Luxembourg #3);

Speaker: 49 Malawi ENGLISH

Consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Malawi #1);

Consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Their Families (Malawi #2);

Speaker: 50 Malaysia ENGLISH

Continue strengthening measures to end domestic violence, including by improving the process for legal recourse for victims (Malaysia #1);

Continue to address the issue of racial and ethnic profiling, including amongst its enforcement officials (Malaysia #2);

Speaker: 51 Maldives ENGLISH

Increase the availability of affordable mental health care services (Maldives #1);

Allocate sufficient resources to effectively respond to gender-based violence and increase the number of shelters and crisis centres, especially to those in rural remote areas (Maldives #2);

Speaker: 52 Malta ENGLISH

Ensure that crimes of violence against women are effectively investigated and prosecuted without undue delay (Malta #1);

Consider strengthening primary health-care services to enhance their availability and accessibility throughout the country, with a view to ensure equal access to all groups (Malta #2);

Speaker: 53 Mauritius ENGLISH

Provide accessible, affordable and equitable access to primary health services, thus achieving Universal Health Coverage, in line with recommendations of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Mauritius #1);

Speaker: 54 Mexico SPANISH

Finalize the ratification process of ILO Convention 169, and strengthen measures to obtain the free and informed consent of the Sami people on projects that affect them (Mexico #1);

Adopt measures to guarantee the physical integrity and bodily autonomy of intersex people, and prohibit unnecessary medical procedures without their free and informed consent (Mexico #2);

Reform the Immigration Law seeking to safeguard the best interests of children, put an end to the detention of minors, and facilitate family reunification (Mexico #3);

Continue the reforms so that the legal recognition of the gender identity of transsexual people is based on self-determination, eliminating requirements such as sterilization and medical treatment to change legal status (Mexico #4);

Speaker: 55 Montenegro ENGLISH

Take further efforts to combat discrimination, hate speech and incitement to discrimination or violence, particularly on the grounds of race, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation and gender identity (Montenegro #1);

Remove legal, practical and financial obstacles to family reunification for refugees and other beneficiaries of international protection (Montenegro #2);

Speaker: 56 Morocco FRENCH

Continue efforts to combat racial discrimination by strengthening the prevention policy (Morocco #1);

Consolidate measures to protect migrants with a view to ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Morocco #2);

Speaker: 57 Mozambique ENGLISH

Continue implement actions to prevent exclusiveness (Mozambique #1);

Take measures to improve the legal assistance provided to asylum seekers (Mozambique #2);

Enhance the efforts against racial discrimination (Mozambique #3);

Speaker: 58 Namibia ENGLISH

Take effective measures to combat, prevent and eliminate racial discrimination and hate speech and other related intolerances (Namibia #1);

Ratify the International Labour Organisation's Violence and Harassment Convention, 2019 (No. 190) (Namibia #2);

Speaker: 59 Nepal ENGLISH

Step up efforts to combat discrimination, hate speech and violence on the grounds of, inter alia, ethnicity, race and religion (Nepal #1);

Continue efforts to prevent all kinds of violence, including domestic violence (Nepal #2);

Speaker: 60 Netherlands ENGLISH

Establish a comprehensive action plan for the protection of the rights of LGBTQI+ persons including the bodily integrity of intersex persons (Netherlands #1);

Implement regional and international obligations addressing violence against women including by ensuring proper coordination between authorities at local, regional and national level (Netherlands #2);

Speaker: 61 Niger FRENCH

Consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Niger #1);

Speaker: 62 Nigeria ENGLISH

Consider taking further necessary measures to ensure adequate protection of the rights of migrants and refugees, including through the ratification of the Convention on the Protection of the Rights of all Migrant Workers and Members of their Families (Nigeria #1);

Respect the rights of parents to raise and educate their children, in accordance with the Convention on the Rights of the Child (Nigeria #2);

Speaker: 63 Norway ENGLISH

Continue efforts to combat domestic violence, including providing support to victims of gender-based and honour-based violence, and enhances competence in preventing and supporting victims of female genital mutilation (Norway #1);

Follow up on the recommendations of the UN Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and the UN Human Rights Committee to renew the Sami Act in dialogue with the Sami people and in accordance with the right of indigenous peoples to self-determination (Norway #2);

Engage the Sami people in the ratification process of the ILO Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 [No. 169] (Norway #3);

Speaker: 64 Pakistan ENGLISH

Continue with actions to end domestic violence, violence against women and combat racial discrimination (Pakistan #1);

Enhance efforts for the protection of the rights of migrants and vulnerable groups (Pakistan #2);

Ensure access to health services for everyone without discrimination (Pakistan #3);

Further strengthen the national human rights institution, including through greater resource allocation (Pakistan #4);

Speaker: 65 Panama SPANISH

Intensify efforts to repatriate all Finnish nationals currently in areas of armed conflict and their children, through a transparent and impartial procedure that respects the principle of the best interests of the child and, once they have been repatriated, provide them with a adequate access to rehabilitation services and assistance (Panama #1);

Ensure that alternatives to military service are non-punitive and non-discriminatory in nature or duration and preserve their civilian character, that all prosecutions of people who refuse military service for reasons of conscience are stopped and allowed release those who are serving prison sentences for that reason (Panama #2);

Increase the availability of mental health care services in all regions and improve prevention and early intervention services, especially for children and youth (Panama #3);

Speaker: 66 Paraguay SPANISH

Improve protection mechanisms for migrants, especially children and adolescents, in accordance with international standards (Paraguay #1);

Ratify ILO Convention No. 169 and the Convention on the Rights of Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Paraguay #2);

Withdraw the reservations to the Convention on the Status of Stateless Persons and strengthen its application system of the Refugee Institution, with international cooperation as one of the pillars for its implementation (Paraguay #3);

Establish a permanent National Mechanism for the Implementation, Reporting and Follow-up of Recommendations on human rights, considering the possibility of receiving cooperation for this purpose, within the framework of SDGs 16 and 17 (Paraguay #4);

Speaker: 67 Peru SPANISH

Redouble ongoing efforts with a view to ratifying ILO Convention 169 (Peru #1);

Strengthen measures to ensure equal access to education for all girls and boys, including Roma and those with a migrant background (Peru #2);

Undertake actions to promote access to employment for migrant women and women of immigrant origin, without discrimination (Peru #3);

Speaker: 68 Philippines ENGLISH

Strengthen efforts to prevent and combat the persistent problem of violence against women and girls by facilitating access to effective remedies especially by victims in rural areas (Philippines #1);

Effectively implement relevant laws and strategies that promote non-discrimination and better integration of migrants into Finnish society (Philippines #2);

Consider a general ban on the detention of minors (Philippines #3);

Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of all Migrant Workers and Members of their Families, as previously recommended (Philippines #4);

Speaker: 69 Poland ENGLISH

Continue its efforts to ensure full protection of rights of migrant workers and immigrant groups vulnerable to exploitation (Poland #1);

Prioritize efforts to keep children in, or return them to, the care of their family and to ensure families' access to forms of support in the caregiving role (Poland #2);

Speaker: 70 Portugal ENGLISH

Review the Mental Health Act by aligning it with the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the right to health framework, with a view to eliminate stigma, violence and coercion in mental health and increasing the availability of community-based services (Portugal #1);

Amend the Aliens Act by reintroducing residence permits on humanitarian grounds, by lifting income requirements for refugee family reunification, and by ensuring that asylum-seekers have effective access to affordable and quality health services (Portugal #2);

Speaker: 71 Republic of Moldova ENGLISH

Further adopt effective legislation in order to prevent and combat human trafficking (Republic of Moldova #1);

Further undertake all necessary steps for addressing hate speech and hate crimes, including providing training to central and local authorities and law enforcement officials (Republic of Moldova #2);

Speaker: 72 Russian Federation RUSSIAN

Cease discrimination of persons on the basis of nationality, cancel unlawful decisions, and take effective measures to prevent such cases in the future (Russian Federation #1);

Take effective measures to prevent and eradicate human trafficking (Russian Federation #2);

Take additional effective measures to prevent domestic violence (Russian Federation #3);

Continue to close the gender pay gap by eliminating significant gender segregation in the labor market (Russian Federation #4);

Speaker: 73 Samoa ENGLISH

Ratify the remaining core human rights treaties (Samoa #1);

Continue to mainstream the rights of children and the rights of indigenous peoples in Finland's national work addressing climate change (Samoa #2);

Fully implement the new Climate Change Act and go beyond the emission reductions targets as set under the new Act (Samoa #3);

Speaker: 74 Saudi Arabia ARABIC

Continue efforts to improve its legal and institutional frameworks to protect against discrimination and inequality, in order to ensure the necessary legal protection, provided that it is constantly evaluated, so as to fully reflect its obligations under the law (Saudi Arabia #1);

Develop training programs to enhance the capabilities of law enforcement and security authorities in line with human rights principles on how to deal with migrant children (Saudi Arabia #2);

Speaker: 75 Sierra Leone ENGLISH

Prohibit the detention of children for breach of immigration law and provide alternatives to detention (Sierra Leone #1);

Ensure prompt and thorough investigation for all cases of hate crimes (Sierra Leone #2);

Create equal access to mental healthcare across the country, especially for the physically challenged and children (Sierra Leone #3);

Speaker: 76 Slovenia ENGLISH

Allocate sufficient resources in order to ensure full implementation of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Slovenia #1);

Guarantee in its legislation the rights of older persons to independent living and affordable and quality care, including residential care (Slovenia #2);

Continue to ratify international human rights treaties, such as the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Slovenia #3);

Speaker: 77 South Sudan ENGLISH

Redouble efforts to ratify the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169) of the International Labour Organization whose legislative amendments are still under process (South Sudan #1);

Guarantee in its legislation the rights of older persons and to allocate sufficient resources to monitor the residential care of the elderly, in terms of both quality and quantity (South Sudan #2);

Speaker: 78 Spain SPANISH

Review criminal legislation to adequately identify and collect the aggravating factors required under Article 46 of the Istanbul Convention (Spain #1);

Given the high costs of the legal system, adopt pertinent measures to ensure access to justice for victims of gender violence, as well as to provide adequate means to the prosecution to be able to investigate these cases (Spain #2);

Establish a comprehensive action plan for the protection of the rights of LGTBI persons, and that the new regulations on gender identity include the situation of minors (Spain #3);

Guarantee the right of asylum seekers to a fair asylum determination process, as well as the non-immigration detention of children and families with minors (Spain #4);

Speaker: 79 Sri Lanka ENGLISH

Step up measures for protection of migrant workers including through the ratification of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Sri Lanka #1);

Improve the legal framework and institutional measures to combat discrimination and enhance access to effective remedies for victims of discrimination (Sri Lanka #2);

Continue strengthening national laws on offenses related to violence against women and girls (Sri Lanka #3);

Speaker: 80 State of Palestine ENGLISH

Redouble efforts to combat discrimination, hate speech and incitement to discrimination or violence (State of Palestine #1);

Take and report on concrete policy measures to establish legislations that addresses the involvement of corporations in conflict-affected areas, including situations of foreign occupation, to prevent all violations (State of Palestine #2);

Speaker: 81 Syrian Arab Republic ARABIC

Assume its responsibilities towards its nationals of foreign terrorist fighters and their families detained in north east of Syria, and repatriate them in a manner that respects international law, and stop politicizing this issue (Syrian Arab Republic #1);

Conduct a comprehensive review of the Government's Action Programme to Combat Racism to ensure that all forms of racial discrimination and xenophobia are effectively addressed, and combat the ideas of so-called "racial superiority" and hate speech (Syrian Arab Republic #2);

Address the widespread sexual exploitation and sexual abuse of children in care institutions (Syrian Arab Republic #3);

Speaker: 82 Thailand ENGLISH

Make further efforts to ensure the effectiveness of legal protection for migrant workers, especially women migrant workers and migrant workers in the agriculture and for every sector including by advancing employment law and complete mechanisms and assisting to obtaining approach with appropriate readdress (Thailand #1);

Continue promoting business and human rights agenda, for example by providing technical cooperation and capacity building activity for interested states in developing the National Action Plan and conducting human rights due diligence (Thailand #2);

Speaker: 83 Timor-Leste ENGLISH

Review and amend the non-discrimination act and other relevant anti-discrimination laws to further improve the effectiveness of the legal and institutional framework to combat discrimination (Timor-Leste #1);

Intensify its efforts to combat discrimination, hate speech and incitement to discrimination or violence on any ground (Timor-Leste #2);

Enhance its efforts to increase women's participation in the public and private sectors and their representation at the highest level (Timor-Leste #3);

Speaker: 84 Togo FRENCH

Take urgent and specific measures in order to remove obstacles that remain regarding the rights of refugees and migrants to family reunion, in addition to the September 2021 law on this issue (Togo #1);

Speaker: 85 Tunisia ARABIC

Facilitate family reunion measures for refugees and other persons under international protection, and limit legal, practical and financial barrier to family reunion (Tunisia #1);

Ensure access for everyone, without distinction, to appropriate care (Tunisia #2);

Step up efforts to combat racial discrimination, hate speech and incitement to discrimination and violence based on race or religion, by encouraging the reporting of hate crimes, and ensuring that such crimes are thoroughly investigated, and perpetrators prosecuted and punished (Tunisia #3);

Speaker: 86 Turkmenistan ENGLISH

Intensify determined actions to end domestic violence as well as gender-based violence (Turkmenistan #1);

Enhance efforts to promote tolerance and intercultural understanding with the aim of eliminating racism and discrimination in all sectors of society (Turkmenistan #2);

Further support work of the Steering Group for the Development of Democracy and Human Rights Education with an aim to advance human rights education (Turkmenistan #3);

Speaker: 87 Ukraine ENGLISH

Further strengthen current policies and initiatives aimed at protection against domestic violence, gender-based violence and violence against women (Ukraine #1);

Ensure the effective and continuous assessment of crimes related to all kinds of violence (Ukraine #2);

Speaker: 88 United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland ENGLISH

Make further progress in prohibiting discrimination against persons with disabilities in all fields, including the provision of government services (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland #1);

Continue to focus on combating violence against women, particularly intimate partner violence (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland #2);

Ensure that government legislation, including the Animal Welfare Act, does not restrict individuals' ability to practice their religion or belief freely in a manner which is incompatible with international human rights law, including Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland #3);

Speaker: 89 United Republic of Tanzania ENGLISH*DID NOT MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS*Speaker: 90 United States of America ENGLISH

Ensure proper and timely investigation and access to justice, including strengthening judicial procedures for trafficking in persons and gender-based violence related crimes (United States of America #1);

Review and strengthen current policies and initiatives to combat societal discrimination against members of racial, religious, and ethnic minority groups, including providing an exemption for religious minorities in the draft Animal Welfare legislation (United States of America #2);

Improve access for persons with disabilities to public information and transportation and ensure effective legal protection against discrimination and exploitation in the labor market (United States of America #3);